Report of a Buyer on Conditions in Lynchburg District.

TOBACCO PROSPECT GOOD.

Special Dispatch to The Star.

LYNCHBURG, Va., August 19 .- A local tobacco buyer stated today that the prespects for the coming tobacco crop in the Lynchburg district are excellent and if the weather continues favorable for the maturing of the crop and its curing one of the most desirable crops in years will be marketed here this winter. It is stated that the farmers aimed at planting much larger acreage than usual and, although they did not get as much obacco out as was expected, the acreage is larger than last year and the crop gives promise of being as heavy or heavier than a year ago, despite the drought of the summer. The crop is growing splendidly now and making satisfactory
